

We Were Ahead of Duke

William S. Jordan

I'm proud to be a Zip—thirty-two years on the law school faculty. I was especially proud in the summer of 2003. Akron had become a fully wireless campus, one of the earliest. When we toured Duke University, our young tour guide was proud that they had wireless access in most of their buildings (but not outside). We had beaten Duke!