On October 22, 2019, the Honors College hosted a special reception and dedication honoring John R. and Sarah A. Adams on their generous contribution for the John and Sarah Adams Amphitheater.

The Adams are major donors of The University of Akron. They funded the John R. and Sarah A. Adams Amphitheater and established the John R. and Sarah A. Adams Honors College Speaker Series, which hosted the inaugural speaker Jim Tressel in September 2012. They continue to support the College of Business.
