1973-74 ACADEMIC YEAR BEGINS

Greetings from the President

It is my pleasure to extend a cordial welcome to all new and returning faculty members as The University of Akron begins its 104th year.

We look forward to the stimulating association with our colleagues, to the challenge of the classroom and inquisitive minds, and to the many structural changes on campus which evidence further progress in our intellectual, cultural and physical development.

This 1973-74 academic year holds promise of rewarding implementation of recommendations from our Educational Research and Development Center to enhance and improve the teaching/learning process; of accelerated encouragement and prosecution of faculty professional research activities; of broader personal and institutional involvement in the arena of public services; of wider opportunities, through the Edwin J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall, to enjoy significant music and drama programs; and of benefits from the fine new and renewed physical facilities which enrich both the faculty and student learning environment.

Just before the quarter officially started on September 24, the University observed the refurbishing of the Rubber Bowl, including its artificial turf, on August 30, and the dedication of the splendid University Library on September 19. On October 9 the magnificent Edwin J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall will be formally opened, and the impressive C. Blake McDowell Law Center will be dedicated November 18. Buchtel Hall (the Third!), which was ready for occupancy early in September, will have its appropriate ceremony in January.

This autumn may rightly be designated as heralding, not just for facilities, but for all the people components of the University, a Year of Dedication.

Welcome to the exciting University of Akron.

All-University Faculty Meeting

The traditional meeting for all University faculty at the beginning of the academic year is scheduled for Friday afternoon, September 28, 1973, at 3:30 p. m. in John S. Knight Auditorium. Following the introduction of the new full-time faculty, President D. J. Guzzetta will discuss the present and future plans for the University.

AU CHRONICLE POLICY AND CONTENTS

In following its policy of publishing official reports of the University Faculty, University Council and the administration each month during the academic year, the AU Chronicle will also provide formal notices of general faculty meetings, legislative action and other data of particular import for the faculty and staff. Any comments concerning the contents of the AU Chronicle may be directed to the Office of the President or to the Executive Director of University Relations and Development.

UNITED FUND CAMPAIGN

Meeting or exceeding its quota for the annual United Fund Campaign has long been a tradition at The University of Akron. This year our quota has been increased by 5.7 percent to $37,000. Dr. Thomas Maxwell, the University's chairman for 1973, assisted by two co-chairmen--Dr. Joyce Sullivan and Mrs. Jennie Whorl, will mail the pledge cards to all University personnel on October 1. It is suggested that pledges be returned by October 15, so that campus representatives will have few follow-up calls to make from October 15 to the end of the campaign, October 20.

All pledges and contributions may be sent directly to the special UF Mail Box through campus mail, in care of Dr. Thomas Maxwell, before October 20.

The United Fund Campaign is a once-a-year community giving effort. It is hoped that the University family will again live up to the UF slogan, "Thanks to you, it's working!" and demonstrate its humanitarian concern by its full support of "The United Way".
